

Dear Sirs:

Local radio is so obnoxious anymore, that all I listen to is XM Radio. The problem in the past has been, to change to local to get the traffic and weather updates. A fete that has nearly caused an accident once or twice. It is now a much easier switch, as I have a channel selection button on my steering wheel, as opposed to changing the band on the dash.

Thank you,
Kelli Benton